Class Information

Classes will be held rain, snow or shine. Dress for the outdoors! Bring Layers! We recommend snow boots, snow pants, gloves, hat, rain gear and warm outdoor wear for cold winter weather. Please read the class descriptions carefully for details on what clothing/gear and levels of physical activity and experience are expected.

Class schedule may change due to circumstances beyond our control. Some classes fill quickly, so sign up for alternates. If there is availability, you might be able to switch to your favorite class at camp.

Equipment is provided except as noted in the course descriptions. However, feel free to bring your own equipment. Your firearms MUST be stored unloaded and kept in a locked case or with trigger lock. If you intend to fish, please bring along your Vermont fishing license. You can get it online at https://www.vtfwdsales.com/online/cid_entry.php.

Lodging

The cozy log cabins at the Hulbert Outdoor Center are warmly heated, rustic and simply furnished with twin wooden bunk beds. Communal bathrooms include sinks, showers and toilets. Bed choice is first-come-first-served. Bring your own bed linens, blankets and pillows. <https://alohafoundation.org/hulbert/>

Camping is available for those who have winter camping experience and proper equipment to SAFELY sleep outdoors. Campers taking the Introduction to Winter Camping Course also have the option of sleeping outdoors for one night or the weekend. Pitch your tent in the field located close to the Main Lodge. Restrooms (no showers) are available in the Main Lodge.

Raffle The VOW Camp raffle is pretty amazing! Each raffle ticket purchased offers you a chance to win hundreds of dollars in prizes. Proceeds go to support VOW in providing future camp scholarships and continue to provide this educational camp program. The drawing is Sunday after lunch, and you do need to be present to win.

Raffle tickets will also be sold at the event at $5 for one ticket, $20 for five tickets and $50 for fifteen tickets.
